TRIBAL RESOURCES FOR THE HEALING PROCESS

In Tribal communities, schools, healthcare services, and tribal programs play an important role in providing the necessary services to aid in the healing of mental and behavioral health issues including suicide, substance use, depression, and trauma. The following resources are available to those seeking assistance.

Hotline/Text Line Resources

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline

(<https://suicidepreventionlifeline.org/>) at 988 (or 1-800-273-8255 (TALK)). The service is free, confidential, and open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Texting services are available through the Crisis Text Line (<https://www.crisistextline.org/>) by texting NATIVE to 741741 to be connected to a trained Crisis Counselor 24/7.

Crisis services for LGBTQ2S are available from the Trevor Project

(<https://www.thetrevorproject.org/get-help/>) at 1-866-488-7386, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week or by texting START to 678678.

The Trans Lifeline (<https://translifeline.org/hotline/>) supports Trans people in crisis by providing services within the Trans community. A trained Crisis Counselor can be reached at 1-877-565-8860.

Stronghearts Native Helpline (<https://strongheartshelpline.org/>) at 1-844-762-8483 (1-844-7NATIVE) is a 24/7 safe, confidential, and anonymous domestic, dating, and sexual violence hotline for American Indians and Alaska Native, offering support, referrals, and advocacy. The trained professionals can assist family members or friends of abuse victims with information to give to loved ones.

RAINN (Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network)

(<https://www.rainn.org/>) operates the National Sexual Assault Hotline 1-800-656-4673 (1-800-656-HOPE) in partnership with more than 1,000 local sexual assault service providers across the country and operates the DoD Safe Helpline for the Department of Defense.

To Report Suspected Abuse at an IHS Facility

IHS Hotline for Reporting Child Abuse and Sexual Abuse at 1-855-723-3447 (1-855-SAFE-IHS). Please refer to the IHS Special Hotline web page (<https://www.ihs.gov/sexualabuseprevention/hotline>) for more information.

You may also report information through the Office of Inspector General Hotline (OIG) at 1-800-447-8477 (1-800-HHS-TIPS), or Report Child Abuse to IHS online through OIG (<https://tips.oig.hhs.gov/report-child-abuse-to-ihs/create-complaint>).

Resources
