TASK FORCE

CYNTHIA COOK SCHOLARSHIP
35TH ANNUAL MGUIRE CONFERENCE APPLICATION

A limited number of scholarships are available for people who work in or are working towards a degree in the Human Services field. Because the number of available scholarships is limited and are often partially funded by the Billings Area Family Violence Task Force, anyone needing assistance paying registration fees must submit this application.

Applications must be postmarked no later than September 12, 2024.

All applicants will be promptly notified regarding scholarship award decisions.

Please email or send the completed application to:

To apply for a scholarship, please complete the above information and submit a written response to the following questions. Use additional paper if necessary:

1. What do you hope to learn by attending the conference?

2. What do you hope to accomplish with what you learn at the conference?

3. How will your department or organization benefit from this training? How will this help you towards your education in the Human Services field if you are a student?

4. Do you or your organization work with children and families that may be exposed to family violence? If you are a student, how will you incorporate this training into your future employment in the Human Services field? If so, please briefly describe how.

5. Are you or your organization unable to pay your registration fee? And if you are not awarded a scholarship, will you be able to attend?
